

Mr. Silluzio
Biology Lesson Plan
Date: 9/12 – 9/14/2018

Topic: End of unit Review: Characteristics of Life, Introductory material (general overview of biology and its subtopics, Microscope use and scientific method.

Summary: Students are prepared for the end of unit assessment by participating in whole class instruction, working in groups on practice questions and by participating in some type of review game.

Goals/Objectives:

- Be able to list and give examples of the 7 characteristics that define life.
- Be able to identify parts of the light microscope and be able to center and focus and subjects using all lenses.
- Be able to prepare and observe a wet slide.
- Be able to differentiate between prokaryote and eukaryote cells.
- Be able to list and explain the hierarchy of living things.
- Be able to list and explain the subfields of biology.

Standards:

Introductory Unit Standards

Time Required: 2 80 minute periods

Prerequisite Knowledge: Basic introductory science for some concepts

Accommodations: All notes, assignments and due dates are available online.